Welcome to Bangalore!!!

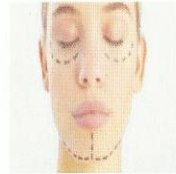

Facethetics 2013 is an International Multispecialty Conference on Facial Aesthetics to be held in Bangalore. This conference brings together National and International clinicians and surgeons in the facial aesthetic specialty and is slated to be one of the ultimate forum for clinicians and practitioners who wish to expand their knowledge base and practical skills. This conference will provide hundreds of trainees and delegates with the opportunity to interact with some of the most renowned speakers and clinicians across the globe and will help them sharpen and hone their skill in addressing and managing facial aesthetics. This first of its kind multispecialty conference in India will showcase lectures, video demos by some of the world's best practitioners and pioneers in Facial Aesthetics and will also have hands on workshops, free papers and poster sessions for the participants to share their experiences and thoughts. Facethetics 2013 will be a unique platform where ideas, vision and thoughts can be exchanged in an open forum
