TRIMBAKESHWAR :

It is an ancient Hindu temple located in a town named Trimbak, approx 28 kms from Nashik city. The temple is dedicated to Lord Shiva and is one of the twelve Jyotirlingas. The origin of sacred Godavari river is near Trimbakeshwar. Kushavart kund (Sacred pond) located in the temple premise and is the source of Godavari river which is the longest river in peninsular India.

ANJANERI HILLS

Anjaneri is one of the forts in the mountain range of Nashik-Trimbakeshwar it is located 20km away from Nashik by Trimbak Road. Anjaneri is the birthplace of Lord Hanuman, and is named after Hanuman's mother, Anjani. 108 Jain caves were found here belonging to 12th century. Anjaneri is one of the most beautiful tracking spots in Nashik.

ARTILLERY MUSEUM

Located in Gandhi Nagar Airport Area, the Artillery Centre Museum features an array of weapons and aircraft that gives the visitors a vision of the proud past. AOP aircraft and MIG-23UM are the famous displays in the museum. Nashik's Artillery Centre is the biggest in Asia, and Indian Army Officers and Soldiers are trained here.

MANGI TUNGI

Mangi-Tungi is a prominent twin-pinnacled peak with plateau in between, located near Tahrabad about 125 km from Nashik, There are numerous temples and is considered sacred in Jainism. Mangi Tungi has the worlds largest statue of Lord Rishabhdeva who was the first tirthankara in Jainism standing at 113 feet.

VINEYARDS

A vineyard is plantation grapes bearing wine, grown mainly for wine making but also raisins, table grapes and non alcoholic grape juices. Nashik is home to almost 50 wineries manufacturing some of the best wine in the world. Sula vineyards, York wineries, Soma wine village & Grover Zampa are some of the most famous vineries and must visit tourist destinations in Nashik.

SULAFEST

SulaFest is an annual two day "Gourmet world music festival" held at Sula vineyards Nashik. Considered as the country's most scenic and happening music festival, the festival offers music, food, drinks and fashion. Some of the activities here are grape stomping, wine tasting and camping. The 2019 edition of SulaFest is on 2nd and 3rd February.
