Editors Annual Report

The Editor's report was read out by the Editor Dr. Rishi Bali. He summarized that the Journal was improving both scientifically and financially over the years. The floor appreciated the Editor's efforts.

The year 2019 has seen a steady growth in the Journal of Maxillofacial & Oral surgery as we have now successfully transitioned from a "Print plus online" to an "Online" only format this year.

Dr Bali said I am happy to report that the journal has been doing extremely well both in terms of the journal metrics and the related financial statistics. Beginning January all issues have been embossed with "Celebrating Golden jubilee Year of AOMSI on the Cover of the journal .

A total of 350 articles were submitted to the JMOS in 2019 till date, which is approx. 10 % more than the corresponding figures in the previous year.

In continuation of our policy to publish early in each cycle, we have already published all the four issues of the journal this year. The supplementary conference issue has also been published including the abstracts of the scientific presentations & posters .

Since the download figures of the new sections started last year were highly encouraging, we have published four articles in the 'Invited review section this year.

The Net Royalty for the JMOS in 2018 payable in 2019 was Rs2498860 as compared to previous years Rs15,40592/- (Before tax) .This huge 50 % jump has been partially made possible due to Springer raising the Net Paid revenue by 5% from 30 to 35 %. I thank the Hon. General secretary for his proactive role in thrashing out the new contract.

In our endeavor to improve the journal standards and also on popular demand by some members of the association , we are actively involved in the process of indexing our Journal in Scopus , as presently the UGC guidelines are accepting this as one of the benchmarks in scientific publishing in India . I am happy to report that Scopus review committee has accepted the inclusion of journal and this shall reflect in the updated list to be released by Scopus in Dec 2019.

Amendments

(a)Executive Committee Member

AOMSI

Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons of India

Existing Rule as in Article IV 20 (a) (j) Shall be elected from among the annual / life members of the association and should have been a member in good standing for three preceding years and should have minimum of three attendance in Annual General Body meetings of AOMSI Head office for contesting the post of executive committee member.

Proposed Changes to be replaced as 20 (a) To be come EC must be Life member. After 3 consecutive EC take a break and then contest.

Justification

Association is growing there are lot of youngsters who would be interested to be part of the association functioning, Who would get a chance to represent . Sometimes familiar faces gets a edge to win elections

(b) Executive Committee Member

Existing Rule as in Article IV 23 (2) The applicants should be Members in good standing and their application shall have to be proposed and seconded by Annual/Life members in good standing.

Proposed Changes to be replaced as 23 (2) To contest in Election the contestant must have above 50% Attendance in the their present EC Term

Justification

If the elected representatives doesn't make time to attend the Ec meetings , he or she would be taking away other more committed members chances of representing

Justification

AOMSI

Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons of India

Our meetings are getting bigger and the main committee members should know how the meetings are conducted, this would help our conferences become better quality

(d) Stopping the Mid Term & State Conference. Start the Zonal Conference from four zones. From Each Zone two best student paper will be selected and it will be presented in Annual conference. There was opposition from EC members , it was put for voting and decided not to go further on the proposed amendment

Hence Dr. Krishnamurthy Bonanthaya, Hon. President said let's change the amendment to stop midterm and make annual conference to 4 days have one day for PG papers , matter to be circulated and discussed in AGM

Justification

Too many conferences

The first three Amendments (a), (b) & (c) is approved by the House proposed by Dr Ramakrshna Shenoji & Seconded by Dr Shaji Thomas. The fourth Amendment (d) was not passed by the house and the house asked to continue the Mid-term Conference

Resolution brought forward by the Individual Members*.

- a. Kerala State chapter – Dr Vargis Mani
